Bastiaan Woudt is a self-taught photographer who has quickly carved out a remarkable niche for himself in the art world. His approach, both humble and passionate, has not only earned him recognition, but also secured him a distinctive position in the field of photography. Ranging from intimate portraits to enchanting landscapes, Woudt's work is characterised by a minimalist style and a deep artistic sensibility.

His influence in the art world is tangible; his photography has been exhibited at leading fairs such as Paris Photo, AIPAD New York and Photo London. In 2022, he celebrated a significant milestone with his first solo museum exhibition, Twist, at Museum Kranenburgh in Bergen. His collaborations with prestigious publications such as Harper's Bazaar, British Vogue, Numéro NL, L'Officiel and New York Magazine, as well as his commercial work for Chanel, underline his artistic skills and desirability.
